EMMITSBURG'S PLEA DENIED BY STATE BD.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Citizens of Frederick and Carroll Counties, unhappy with locations of high schools in their counties, sought relief Wednesday from the state board of education and a circuit court.

The state board denied the request of an Emmitsburg group protesting location of a consolidated high school near Thurmont. It would serve students from both communities. It affirmed the action of the Frederick board and its site selection.

Carroll County Circuit Court was asked to prevent the Carroll County Board of Education from building a consolidated high school between Mt. Airy and Sykesville.

Judge Edward O. Weant Jr. gave the board and the superintendent of schools until June 22 to show why it should not issue such an order.

Attorney Alleck A. Resnick, speaking for the Emmitsburg group, told the state board of education the Frederick County Board of Education improperly and without examination of the costs changed the site of the consolidated high school there from a site midway between the towns to one on the edge of Thurmont.

He said the school board and the county commissioners did so to save $7,000 in the purchase price. He added they would spend several times that amount in the cost of grading, water and sewage.

Senate Passes Voting Rights Bill; Foresee Clash On Poll Tax Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate passage of the administration's voting-rights bill has set up an eventual clash with the House over the banning of poll taxes in state and local elections.

That is the chief difference between the bill that sailed through the Senate Wednesday by a 79-19 vote after five weeks of debate, and the one awaiting action in the House.

The House Judiciary Committee overrode administration objections and wrote in a flat ban on poll taxes, plus a declaration that they have been used to discriminate against Negro voters. The Senate adopted a similar declaration but rejected the ban by a 49-45 vote.

Dominican Reds Charge Americans With Coercion

By LOUIS UCHITELLE
SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Leaders of the Dominican rebel congress sent a message to non-Communist nations around the world Wednesday night accusing the United States of coercion in Dominican internal affairs.

The attack on the U.S. intervention in the Dominican crisis was signed by Arevalo Cedeno Valdez and Anibal Campagna as presidents of the Chamber of Deputies and Senate dissolved by the overthrow of President Juan Bosch in 1963.

Sent to parliamentary leaders in the Western Hemisphere, Europe, the Middle East and Asia, the message asked for support of the "free and democratic parliaments" of the world. It did not go to Cuba, Haiti, the Soviet Union or Red China.

NOT A SECRET
The cable said it was "no longer a secret how the United States government, employing dilatory tactics that could be qualified as coercive, have strongly pressured responsible personalities and organisms in Santo Domingo and abroad with the manifest desire to impose solutions openly contrary to the democratic interests of the Dominican people and the 1963 constitution."

The message obviously referred to attempts by special envoys of President Johnson to get the rebel and junta factions to set up a coalition government headed by Antonio Guzman, agriculture minister under Bosch.

ASSAULT PLAN

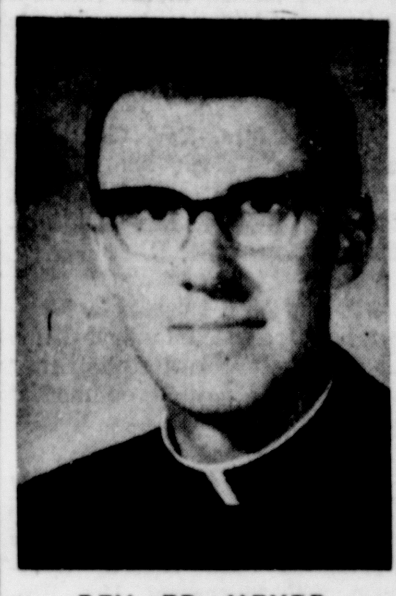

The junta president, Gen. Antonio Imbert Barrera, also assailed the plan as "a frank intervention in the internal affairs" of this Caribbean nation, but the rebels had indicated they were in favor of it.

22 Bombers Blast Army Barracks In N. Viet Nam

By EDWIN O. WHITE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Twenty U.S. and Vietnamese war planes rained down 55 tons of bombs on a North Vietnamese army barracks and supply area 220 miles south of Hanoi today, a military spokesman announced.

Pilots reported 65 per cent of their targets destroyed and heavy damage to the remainder of the Ben Quang barracks-supply area.

A U.S. Navy pilot was believed killed when Communist ground fire brought down his F8 Crusader during another strike. Two U.S. Army men were killed the day before in ground clashes. The total of U.S. combat deaths in Viet Nam rose to 389.

NAVY IS ACTIVE
A U.S. spokesman disclosed that U.S. Navy destroyers have entered the ground war, firing six missions since May 20 against Viet Cong targets in the coastal areas of South Viet Nam's Binh Dinh, Binh Thuan and Phu Yen provinces.

The spokesman said four de-

ONE CASUALTY

The Sommers suffered one casualty in the strike. Seaman Jimmy C. Stinnett of Cartersville, Va., was killed when the muzzle end of a 5-inch gun on the destroyer exploded.

A U.S. military spokesman said the plane shot down was one of several Crusaders flying support for eight A4 Skyhawks raiding a railroad yard at Vinh, midway between the Communist capital of Hanoi and the North Vietnamese border.

Other pilots said they saw the disabled Crusader plunge into the target area and that the pilot failed to eject.

Radio Hanoi announced that a U.S.O plane had been shot down over Vinh, but it gave no word on the fate of the pilot.

CRITIC WARNS NEW PLAN MAY SPLIT CHURCH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Whips of friction trailed today in the wake of the United Presbyterian General Assembly. But it emanated mostly from the sidelines.

Generally, the representative delegates displayed a strong consensus in mapping new church plans and policies, despite eddies of debate.

"Unity in Jesus Christ does not mean uniformity," commented the Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, chief administrator of the church. "We can differ within the fellowship without it being a prelude to schism."

CRITICIZES TRENDS

As the denomination's week-long legislative meeting closed Wednesday however, fireworks came from outside in a volley of criticism by the Rev. Dr. Edward T. Stimson, of Omaha, Neb., at current denominational trends.

He protested a new confession of faith, given preliminary backing by the assembly, and said it could lead to "loss of our liberties and the introduction of monarchical governmental forms" because it sanctions variety in them.

In an open-air news conference, swollen by bystanders, he said the confession also helps "open the way to church union," and he denounced current union talks going on among six denominations, including United Presbyterians.

FORESEES SPLIT

"If they succeed, as they well might," he said, "we shall have to leave the church which would no longer be free and Presbyterian-reformed." He said if that "sad day" comes, many hundreds would depart with him.

However, the assembly here overwhelmingly endorsed the progress of the talks, under way for four years.

The new confession, the first restatement of beliefs for English-speaking Presbyterians since the Westminster Confession three centuries ago, remains subject to a two-year, churchwide process of discussion and possible changes before final action on it.

It was expected to unleash a ferment of theological self-examination in the 3½-million-member church.

Young Republicans At York Meeting

Adams County's Young Republicans met Wednesday evening with the Cumberland and York County clubs at York for a "19th Congressional District" session. The York County Young Republicans headed by Robert Minnich arranged for the meeting held in the Avalon Farms Dairy.

Following the introduction of York Republican officials, the clubs presented former Congressman George A. Goodling with a testimonial plaque in a tribute to his years of service to the people of the district and the Republican party. In his response, Goodling warned against the dangers of socialism, the direction in which, he said, the country is rapidly moving under the Democrats in Washington.

John Acton, in the major address of the program, outlined the positive projects initiated by both State Chairman Craig Trux and Gov. Seaton's administration. He said the immediate problem facing the Republican party is the need for unity within. Acton noted that the state Young Republicans are cosponsoring two projects relating to the future strength of the party: The teen-age Republican clubs and camp pride, a fresh-air type program aimed at underprivileged children of all races from the larger cities.

suspend automatically state literacy tests and other such devices in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Georgia and South Carolina and parts of North Carolina and Virginia. Federal registrars would be authorized to sign up voters in those areas where tests are struck down.

Court action to appoint federal registrars and suspend literacy tests would be authorized in any state or county where the attorney general brought suit to enforce the 15th Amendment's guarantee of the right to vote.

NEVER I DOUBT
The Senate's passage of the bill was never in doubt after 70 Senators voted Tuesday to limit further debate. But Southern opposition was bitter and unyielding.

Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., said the measure violates the Magna Carta, the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

"Not since Reconstruction has the Senate permitted this union to be so perverted and subjected to such a diabolical attack," he said.

had failed to renegotiate the price of the original selection as the board of commissioners directed, and falsely told the commissioners the county board of education was unanimous in its selection of the Thurmont site.

Charles V. Price, attorney for the Frederick School Board, attacked the Emmitsburg group's contention as not based on fact and without merit. Price said their contention the grading costs would be high was in fact based on a letter appraising the site on which they wished the school built, not the Thurmont site.

He presented the board with a letter of commitment from Thurmont guaranteeing extension of water and sewage disposal lines to a point within 10 feet of the school property. And he added that the request of the commissioners for money to buy the Thurmont land had not mentioned how the board voted. The minutes for 1963, he said, were full of attempts to get the original site at a lower price.

ADMIT "DISCONTENT"

Price said he agreed with Resnick on one thing, that there were people made unhappy by the choice.

Frederick County Superintendent of Schools John Carnochan Jr. took the stand. He presented the letter showing the water and sewage lines would be extended without cost to the county. And he testified estimates of the school's cost run to $2½ million.

James A. Sensenbaugh, state superintendent of schools, disqualified himself from participation in the hearing. He was superintendent of schools in Frederick County when the controversy began.

CARROLL'S CASE

The Carroll County groups have been to the county and state boards of education seeking to prevent consolidation of Mt. Airy and Sykesville high schools in a single school between the communities.

They contend the county location is not suitably drained, would create traffic dangers and would damage the economies of both towns. They accuse the board of not properly informing the public and failing to grant "full and fair public hearings. The county board of education asserted it has the right to determine school locations and was supported by the state board of education.

Today's Talk

DIFFICULTIES

Henri-Frederic Amiel tells in his famous diary of listening to an inspiring sermon and he commented: "It was borne in upon me that for some men difficulties are a source of inspiration." He might have added that all men, who have ever accomplished anything worthwhile, have been those who have experienced difficulties.

Think of the difficulties that every inventor goes through — trying again and again to accomplish what he set out to achieve. Thomas Edison went through a multitude of tests and trials before he arrived at his electric light. Look at our modern automobiles, our jet planes, our high-speed printing presses and there you see the triumphs over difficulties — and there is no end to what improvements will do in regard to all useful things.

Difficulties stir the mind, give power to the will and determination, and inspire us all to try again and again. I never forget the sign that I noted on my way to work one day. It was that of a contractor and it said: "Builder of Difficult Foundations." Here was a man who deliberately chose the job of doing the difficult thing!

We are challenged when a difficult problem is placed before us. There will always be those who will say that a certain thing cannot be done — but there are always those, as well, who will do it anyway! They are the builders and inspirers of the world.

It's only the difficult things that stir the imagination and keep it at white heat, from which many a great enterprise is forged. The easy jobs are getting scarcer every day and there are fewer who want to fill them. Difficult jobs pay better, offer quicker advancement and give one greater personal pride.

The diamond is the most beautiful and costly of all precious stones, yet think what difficulties face it before it is ready for the jeweler to sell. Think of the difficult digging in the mines and the long careful labor in its perfect polishing. Life is difficult — but it can be made beautiful!

Just Folks

BURIED TALENT
He was clever enough; he had courage and skill, but to put them to work he used wish for the will.

"I've a theme for a book," off he said, "and I vow I'll write it some day, but I can't do it now."

He'd tell us the plot for a play he'd conceived and it would have succeeded we firmly believed. But the years flew along, and he came to life's end and his dramas died, too, for they hadn't been penned.

Hard work is the answer! Vain, talent and theme if he who should use them does nothing but dream.

And down to the grave, when his spirit took flight, Went the books and the plays he'd intended to write.

Open sandwiches taste wonderful when they are made of sliced bread, ham and tomatoes topped with mayonnaise mixed with grated cheddar cheese. Toast the bread lightly before making the sandwiches. After the "filling" is arranged on the bread, put the open sandwiches under the broiler to heat and have the topping puff and brown.

Don Shinnick Is Banquet Speaker

Donald Shinnick of the Baltimore Colts was the guest speaker at the annual father and son banquet of St. Paul's Lutheran Church held in the church social hall on Wednesday evening. His subject was "Christianity—What Athletes Do With Christianity." A question and answer period followed his talk.

Approximately 135 attended the affair, for which Clayton L. Evans was master of ceremonies. Greetings were extended to the group by Richard A. Maitland Sr., president of the Lutheran Churchmen in charge of arrangements. A welcome of fathers and sons was given by the Rev. Graham T. Rinehart, pastor, and sons, Peter, Wayne and Thomas. Prior to dinner the invocation was offered by the Rev. David Kammerer, pastor emeritus. The meal was served by the women of the church.

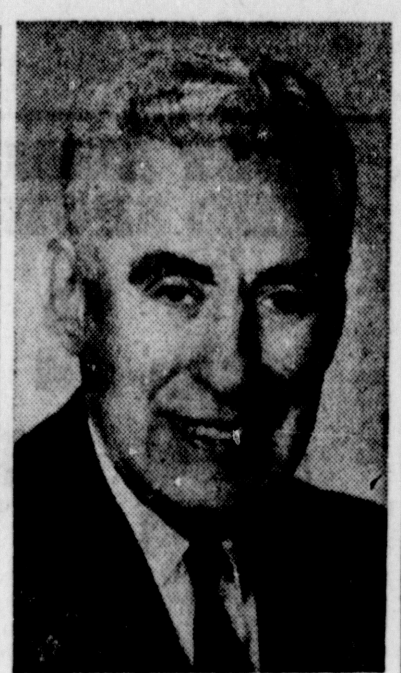

There were selections by "The Quatr'elles," vocal quartet from Littlestown High School and composed of Dianne Byers, Jackie Elder, Peggy Myers and Martha Ritter; following the folk singing by the quartet, there was a "hootenanny." There were readings by Mr. Evans. The program concluded with the benediction by Pastor Rinehart.

PSU WILL GIVE 3,400 DEGREES

UNIVERSITY PARK, — The Pennsylvania State University will confer degrees on approximately 3,400 graduates at commencement exercises to be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, June 1, in Beaver Stadium.

These degrees, added to the 38 conferred at commencement exercises held last September, December, and March, will bring to nearly 5,800 the number of degrees to be conferred by the university during the 1964-65 academic year.

Dr. Eric A. Walker, president of the university, will preside at the exercises and will be joined by Roger W. Rowland, of New Castle, president of the Board of Trustees, in conferring the degrees.

There will probably be some meat leftover if you have served a veal shoulder roast. To use it, you may heat slices in gravy or dice the meat and add it to diced celery and apple for a hearty salad. If you prepare the salad, add French dressing (instead of mayonnaise) and serve on crisp greens.

Ardinger Heads Bullets' Five-Man Squad Entering IC4A Meet At Rutgers U.

Ever since he first dashed out of the hills of western Maryland, Donald P. "The Bullet" Ardinger has been making history at Gettysburg College and a name for himself among the top track and field men in the east.

Ardinger is a 6'2", 180-pound sophomore from Williamsport, Md., a small town six miles southeast of Hagerstown. His specialties are the 100 and 220-yard dashes. These two he does so well that at one time he had the fastest 100 in the east and the fourth best in the country, and the second best 220 in the east and eighth fastest in the nation. So far this year, Ardinger has been clocked at 9.4 seconds in the 100 and 20.9 seconds in the 220.

In his first year of varsity competition, "The Bullet" has not lost a race in the 100. He won all eight regular season outings and went on to cop both his heat and the finals of the Middle Atlantic Conference university division championships and heat and finals in the NCAA small college Atlantic Coast championships. He holds the MAC record with a 9.5 seconds and then turned in his fastest 100 ever in the NCAA's with a 9.4.

He won five of six regular season 220 encounters, losing only to Temple's Frank Rosellone in the first outing of the year. He then went on to add the MAC title to his list, doing a 21.3 seconds, and came back a week later to win the NCAA regional title in 20.9 seconds.

When athletes from more than 50 of the east's best track and field schools converge on Rutgers University this weekend for the IC4A championships, Ardinger will be pitting his talents against the strongest competition of his career. Gettysburg has never produced a winner in the IC4A's and Ardinger could be the first. The best performance by a Bullet was Bob Linders' third place in the 880 at Villanova last year.

RUGGED START

Ardinger's career began in his Senior year at Williamsport High School. The school had no official track team, and had only three pairs of shoes and a coach who was interested in getting the sport started. The first time the Bullet entered a race, he watched the other competitors tack down their starting blocks and decided his best bet was to imitate them. He won that first time out in 10.5. Later he took part in a couple of mile relay events around the state. This is where conflicts began. With only three pairs of shoes, the first man out had to get back quick so the anchor man would have shoes to run in. The track that Ardinger ran on in high school was nothing more than a worn out path around the baseball field. Everything was run in a circle, including the 100 and 220.

Besides Gettysburg's dash specialist, Coach Hal Glad will also enter a mile relay team and sophomore Scott Shoupe, pole vaulter, in the IC4A's. The relay team is composed of Bruce Wilson, Ridley Park, Pa.; Chris Hayden South Salem, N.Y.; Jerry Staub, Jacksonville Beach, Fla., and Ardinger. The team recorded a sizzling 3:16.1 in the MAC championships two weeks ago. Shoupe is a native of Merrick, N.Y.

McSherrystown Little League

Scoring four times in the top of the first inning, Fee's Cardinals went on to defeat the Nailers 9-3 Wednesday evening on St. Mary's field.

Two walks, a double by Bob Strausbaugh and singles by Jim Crawford and Steve Topper produced the four big tallies. The Nailers made a game attempt to come right back in the bottom half of the initial frame with a pair of runs. Singles by Tony Conrad and Bill Marshall and two Fee's miscues accounted for the runs.

Steve Lawrence banged out doubles in each of the second and third innings to help Fee's push across two scores in each frame and put the contest out of reach for the Nailers.

Bob Strausbaugh paced the winners' attack with a trio of hits while Joe Clingan went the distance on the hill for the win. He allowed four hits, two by Marshall, fanned 14 batters and walked only one man. Conrad and Folmer divided the pitching for the losers.

Tuesday's postponed game between the K. of C. and Discount TV has been rescheduled for Friday evening.

IKE AND GOLF LURE $27,000 TO HEART ASSO.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower passed up a golf exhibition Wednesday because of a sore elbow and shoulder.

The 74-year-old former president acted as a referee instead in a match that drew $27,000 for the Heart Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania at the Philadelphia Country Club.

He officiated at 13 of the 18 holes of the match won by Arnold Palmer and singer Andy Williams, 1 up, over Jack Nicklaus and dancer Ray Bolger.

After 11 holes, the general headed in his golf cart for the clubhouse where he rested until the teams reached the 17th, when he reappeared for farewells ceremonies.

ENJOYS POSITION

While he was on the course, the general engaged in bantering with Bolger, the 61-year-old song and dance man. The former President appeared in good health and seemed to enjoy his position as referee.

On the first green, Bolger was about to hit from a trap when he stopped and said to the general: "Can I keep the flag in, general?"

Ike replied "Yes." "Thank you, sir," said Bolger and he proceeded to blast out within four feet of the pin from where Nicklaus holed out.

The match was all even after the 17th, where Nicklaus holed a 45-foot uphill, curving putt. But a 20-foot chip by Palmer and a four foot missed putt by Bolger at 18, gave the Palmer-Williams team the match.

EYES U.S. OPEN

Nicklaus, who won the Masters, apparently is concerned now only with the U.S. Open, slated next month for St. Louis's Bellefonte Country Club course. He said he was heading there today for 36 holes of practice over the layout.

The 25-year-old Nicklaus described Bellerive as "a very tough course." His father, Charles, who accompanied him here Wednesday, said Jack felt it was the longest course he'd ever played, that the wind comes in at you on five of the roughest holes.

Asked which he felt was the more important tournament, the Masters or the Open Nicklaus played it cagey, saying, "It depends upon which one you are playing." Eisenhower arrived at the club via helicopter from his Gettysburg farm bringing along Palmer and the 35-year-old pro's wife, Winnie. He was greeted by his daughter-in-law, Barbara. She lives nearby with Eisenhower's son, John, now an executive with the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pa.

EXTEND CAGE CAMP 2 WEEKS

Camp Gettysburg, R. 2, today announced the addition of two weeks to its summer basketball camp. Applications are now being accepted for the weeks of July 18 and 25.

Included on the staff of the camp are John Egli of Penn State, Ben Carnevali of Navy, Jack Kraft of Villanova, Bud Milikan of Maryland and Bones McKinney of Wake Forest. In addition there will be many other fine college and high school coaches plus college players.

Information may be secured by writing Camp Gettysburg, Gettysburg.

The camp was originally scheduled to run for four weeks beginning June 20 but due to the response it has become necessary to extend the period.

John Carpenter of Gettysburg and Bill Gibson of University of Virginia are the camp directors.

WOULD MAKE IT CRIME TO KILL JOHNSON

By EDMOND LE BRETON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Two congressional members of the commission that investigated the assassination of President John F. Kennedy testified in favor of legislation to make Wednesday in favor of legislation to make such an offense a federal crime.

Reps. Hale Boggs of Louisiana, assistant House Democratic leader, and Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, House GOP leader, were the leadoff witnesses before a House Judiciary subcommittee. They served on the seven-man presidential commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren.

IMMEDIATE ACTING

The bill would allow federal jurisdiction to be asserted immediately in the case of killing, assaulting or kidnapping the president, vice-president or any official in the line of presidential succession. The penalty for killing or kidnapping any of the officials would be life imprisonment or death, while for assault it would be a jail term of up to 15 years.

Boggs said in prepared testimony "one of the principal reasons for urging the enactment of this legislation is in order to end, once and for all, any

Queen Sees British Troops In Germany

SOEST, Germany (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II took a day off Wednesday from her tour of German cities and states to visit some of her troops stationed in West Germany.

Her day began with a visit to Canadian forces at Nearby Fort York. The local German population turned out in large numbers to cheer the queen as she and her husband, Prince Philip, arrived.

DISPUTE OVER BODY

Boggs referred to the brief dispute that occurred in the hospital at Dallas when a local official sought to prevent the removal of Kennedy's body until an autopsy could be performed as required by local law.

The Louisiana Democrat cited the laws of Canada and various Western European countries, under which national authorities can take charge in case of the murder or an assault on the head of state.

Ford has said that he thinks justice would have been served if Kennedy's assassin could have been taken promptly into federal custody.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
Beautiful hair is a woman's crowning glory. And hair is truly beautiful only when it is lively and lustrous. However colored or styled, ailing locks have never won a beauty contest.

Yet most of us girls fail to give our hair the basic care that promotes loveliness. Maybe we would change our ways if we fully appreciated the intricacies of the hair's structure.

Do you realize, for instance, that your hair is a living part of your body and not just a surface phenomenon? Each strand is held together by living protein. It grows from a minute follicle in the scalp, where it is nourished by a network of blood vessels. To keep it lubricated, there's an oil gland close by.

A normal head contains up to 140,000 strands; every one carries color and substance through a central tube which is protected by microscopic, overlapping scales. Now who would neglect or abuse such a marvelous mechanism?

Like the whole girl, the hair thrives on sane living—on a high-protein, low carbohydrate diet in particular. External care is based on scrupulous cleanliness and scalp stimulation via brushing and massage; on the use of individually suited shampoo and treatment products.

In addition, medical advice is needed for serious problems. Glorious tresses cannot be had for less care.

POCKET CALORIE COUNTER

Do you really know the calorie counts of the foods you eat? Our new booklet, POCKET CALORIE COUNTER, tells the score at a glance. It also gives a diet plan—a way to eat and slim. For your copy, write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 10 cents in coin.

EMPORIA, Kan. (AP) — Dr. Brian E. Tomlinson, 68, professor emeritus of education at New York University, died Monday of a heart attack. Tomlinson retired from the NYU School of Education in 1962. At the time of his death he was a professor of education at Kansas State Teachers College in Emporia.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

KHAM DUC, Viet Nam (AP) — Men in power often like to have a hideaway from the world where, in a proper setting, they can brood on their greatness.

The late President Ngo Dinh Diem of South Viet Nam had plans for a summer palace here 43 miles southwest of Da Nang.

A site was cleared atop one of the peaks that tower up to 6,000 feet in wild and lonely green beauty. As there are no good roads, everything had to be flown in.

At a cost of $4 million to $5 million, an airstrip was built on a 1,600-foot-high plateau. Construction was begun on the foundations for the palace. Then Diem was killed during a political coup, and his unfinished palace hideaway now stands as a mute memorial to his vanished dream.

On the plateau now is a training camp for civilian irregular defense groups, quasi-soldier volunteers whose jobs is to protect isolated villages from Viet Cong raids.

"We've got a pretty good set-up here," said 1st Lt. Niel Davidson, 24, Chicago, member of a small U.S. Army Special Forces team which helps train the Vietnamese and Montagnard tribesmen volunteers.

"It's pretty much like garrison life anywhere except when we go out on operations against the Viet Cong. But I'll say one thing — these are the most miserable mountains and Godawful jungles anyone on a patrol ever saw."

Davidson could be forgiven a bit of homesickness. He was married only three months ago, and a month later had to leave his bride to come to this isolated outpost in a strange land.

To an outsider these lonely circles of security in an enemy sea seem terribly vulnerable to mass attacks. The airstrips are their only lifeline to the outside world.

"We could be overrun," acknowledged the unworried lieutenant, "but they'd have to spend an awful lot of people to do it — more people than they can afford."

"After all, this place is pretty well defended with prepared positions, concrete bunkers and miles of barbed wire and mine fields."

Aside from the guerrillas, the mountains and plateaus abound in many forms of wild game, including elephants and tigers. None of the Americans here has had a chance to go hunting for them, however.

YALE STUDENT PUBLICATION RATES PROFS

By DON MEIKLE
NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — If a Yale professor wants to know what his students really think of him as a teacher he can find out by buying a student publication called the "Yale Course Critique."

This 200-page volume is an inside-dope report from this year's sophomores to next year's freshmen and sophomores. But it also is read by faculty members.

A senior professor with a wide reputation as a scholar might find out from the critique that his undergraduate students think he is "stale."

A young woman instructor might discover that her all-male classes think she's "unbelievably sweet."

CRITICAL OF STUDENTS
One example from the 1965 edition says a course "is invariably described as dull — 'boring with a capital B,' as one student put it homework counts little, is graded liberally."

Occasionally the editors are more critical of students than faculty.

For instance:
"Mr. Cook — Asst. Prof. Robert M. Cook — attempts through his Sociology 20 course to fight the obsessive, grade-grubbing, anti-educational mentality of many Yale students. Unfortunately, many enrollees do no more than a fraction of the reading."

MOST APPRECIATED
The ability to make a course interesting and challenging, a personal interest in students, and a sense of humor seem to be the most appreciated qualities in Yale teachers.

Humor, or the lack of it, almost invariably draws comment. But a professor who gets carried away by his own anecdotes is likely to have his lectures called "irrelevant" or even "meaningless."

The student editors don't hesitate to turn up their nose at teachers who they think talk down to them, can be drawn off the subject, or are fooled by the parroting of pet phrases.

Yale's course critique is a money-making project of the Yale Daily News, the student newspaper. The 1965 edition, the most ambitious yet, sells for $1.95 a copy.

TWO REACTIONS
According to a Daily News editor, the critique has always been "pretty much a sophomore project" primarily designed to inform students who are new on campus.

A similar publication, "Confidential Guide to Courses," is published by the Harvard Crimson.

Reactions to these publications seem to fall into two categories.

One side says students aren't qualified to criticize the learned, experienced men on the faculty. The other side maintains that no one knows better than students whether they're learning anything.

CALLED "ONE-SIDE"
Although the Yale critique is entirely a student operation, it has an unofficial "adviser," Andrew Patterson Jr., associate professor of chemistry.

Patterson has been critical, but not hostile. He has charged that previous critiques have perhaps had plenty of "sharp and incisive writing," but were often ill-informed and one-sided. This year the student editors adopted some of his suggestions and circulated detailed questionnaires among students in each class so that a consensus, rather than one person's opinion, could be obtained.

One Vote Margin In 2 Election Races

RICHMOND, Ky. (AP) — Election officials in Madison County checked Democratic primary election results, then checked them again and came up with the same answer.

Robert Turley, received 3,398 votes to 3,397 for Robert Combs in the race for county judge Tuesday.

Kenton Moberly had 3,066 to 3,064 for Willie Green for sheriff.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Clash Is Brewing On UC Benefits

HARRISBURG (AP)—Another clash appears to be brewing between House Democrats and the Scranton administration over conflicting legislation—this time in the field of workmen's compensation.

House Democrats unveiled their program Tuesday advocating an $8.50 increase in weekly benefits to $56 a week.

The administration bill, proposed in the Senate, calls for only a $2.50 raise.

The House bill duplicates a proposal introduced by Senate Democrats, but the latter is tied up in the Republican-controlled Senate Labor and Industry Committee.

KNIGHTS HONOR ALTOONA MAN

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — S. Blair Sponeybarger Jr., of Altoona, on Wednesday was elected right eminent grand commander of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania at the closing session of the 113th annual conclave in Masonic Temple here.

He and other officers were installed at ceremonies closing the four-day meeting.

Sponeybarger was elected for a one-year term to succeed F. Parson Kepler.

Other officers elected Wednesday are:

J. Harvey Moore, Aliquippa, very eminent deputy grand commander; Harold E. Stokley, Pittsburgh, eminent grand generalissimo; Charles H. Eurich, Shippensburg, eminent grand senior warden; G. Calvin Dyson, Abington, eminent grand captain general; William D. Geesey, Carbondale, eminent grand junior warden; the Rev. Dr. Luke H. Rhoads, Hollidaysburg, eminent grand prelate; Perry L. Labarr, Pittsburgh, eminent grand treasurer, and John W. Laird, Philadelphia, eminent grand recorder.

WOULD EASE RACING RULES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislation easing restrictions against state employees working at pari-mutuel harness race tracks is cleared for action in the House.

The bill, which would allow a state employee earning less than $6,000 a year to work or hold office with a racing association, was reported to the floor Wednesday by the House Committee on State Government.

Employees of the Department of Justice, state police, auditor general's office and enforcement agents of the Liquor Control Board would continue to be banned under the new bill.

The committee added the auditor general's office in an amendment before reporting the bill to the floor.

At the same time a bill was introduced in the House that would authorize race tracks to deny admission to persons with known criminal records. Sponsors were Reps. Alan D. Williams Jr., R-Bucks; James L. Wright, D-Bucks; Henry J. Cianfrani, D-Philadelphia, and Max H. Homer, D-Allegheny.

Sister Of Castro Aids Refugee Plan

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Juanita Castro, the Cuban dictator's exiled sister, said Wednesday the Marta Abreu Foundation which she established here will subsidize a Cuban refugee center in Jamaica.

Miss Castro said the help was offered after the Rev. Derm Verley, who operates the refugee haven in Kingston, informed her it was without funds.

Associates said Miss Castro set up the foundation with her own resources but soon will start a fund-raising campaign.

OSLO, Norway (AP) — Helge Klatsad, 78, president of the World Court in The Hague from 1958 to 1961, died Sunday. Klatsad, who was appointed a judge of the Norwegian Supreme Court in 1932, was president of arbitration commissions between Norway and Poland and the United States and Italy.

SEES RETURN TO TV DRAMA SERIES SOON

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — David Susskind, whose principal occupation is producing programs for network television, is convinced that the dramatic anthology series soon will return to popularity.

"Television moves in cycles, and we have now completed the life cycle of the social-significance shows," he observed. "In fact, we overdid it as usual, with too many series determined to hit the audiences over the head with dramas hammering at current problems."

SEEKING ESCAPE

These "social-significance" series, of course, included Susskind's own "East Side, West Side," and such programs as "The Defenders," "For the People," and "Slattery's People." All except "Slattery's People" will have disappeared by September, and "Slattery's People," about a politician, has never been exactly a star in the Nielsen ratings. CBS obviously believes it has other sterling qualities and gave it a second season in which to prove itself.

"Right now it is apparent that audiences want relaxation and escape, probably because they have enough serious problems in their own lives and are living out personal dramas," Susskind continued. "That seems obvious in the success of movies like 'Goldfinger' and 'Mary Poppins.'"

Arthur Godfrey, who recently played a limited engagement in a Broadway show, now will try his hand at movies. He'll play Doris Day's father in a film to be produced in Hollywood this summer.

WARRENTON, Va. (AP) — John Clark, 62, one of the nation's early radio pioneers, was found dead Tuesday in his car parked in the garage of his home. A medical examination indicated Clark died of carbon-monoxide poisoning.

Says Tactical Arms To Stay At Front

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says "tactical nuclear weapons will remain deployed with front-line troops."

McNamara issued his statement Tuesday in response to an inquiry about published reports he had decided to pull back tactical nuclear weapons currently with forward elements in Europe.

A Chicago Tribune story along those lines was disputed Monday by the Pentagon which said it contained "inaccuracies and distortions." But the Washington Post said Tuesday the denial "left the core of the (Tribune) story unchallenged."

U.C. tactical nuclear weapons in Europe and the Pacific are under tight controls. None are with U.S. forces in Viet Nam.

Remove Proviso On Tax For Aged

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee has removed from the House-passed Social Security-health-care bill a provision to lower income-tax benefits for the aged.

Under present law, persons over 65 can deduct all medical expenses in figuring their income taxes. Younger taxpayers can deduct medical expenses exceeding 3 per cent of their gross income, and medicine and drug costs exceeding 1 per cent.

A provision in the House Bill would have required persons over 65 to use the 3-and-1 per cent limits in figuring income taxes, but the Senate committee approved Tuesday an amendment by Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., to erase the section.

Flying Granddad Changes Landing

NEW YORK (AP) — Max Conrad, 63-year-old flying grandfather, made an unscheduled landing at Flushing, Queens, Airport Tuesday night when his visibility became hampered by auxiliary gas tanks in the cabin of his single-engine Cessna 206.

Conrad, flying from Dayton, Ohio, had been scheduled to

LIBERTY BELL REPLICA GOES TO NEW YORK

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A replica of the historic Liberty Bell goes to the New York World's Fair today and the 100,000 Pennsylvanians are going along on a special train to keep it company.

There won't be 100,000 persons aboard, of course, but several members of the state promotion organization, called The 100,000 Pennsylvanians for the Promotion of Economic Growth, will make the trip.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is furnishing a private car to transport the $2,500 replica to the fair now in its second season.

The bell replica, crack and all will be housed at the Pennsylvania exhibit, which is now under construction.

The Pennsylvania pavilion, being erected in the fair's court of the universe, will be opened June 13.

Gov. Scranton will speak at the opening ceremonies.

June 13 is also the opening day of Pennsylvania Week at the multi-million dollar fair.

The 100,000 Pennsylvanians, which includes representatives of industry and business, is sponsoring the bell replica and the fair exhibit.

All this is being done without cost to Pennsylvania taxpayers.

Various industries and businesses in the 100,000 Pennsylvanians are picking up the tab and donating material and services.

ELECTS ROMACK

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Barbara Romack has been elected president of the Ladies Professional Golfers Association, succeeding Shirley Englehorn, who resigned after being injured in a traffic accident.

land at Kennedy Airport on the first leg of a 9,000-mile flight to Africa. He elected to land at Flushing to avoid the heavy air traffic. He is scheduled to leave Kennedy Friday.

Computer Detects Heart Ailments

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet doctors have used an electronic computer to diagnose heart disease with 92 percent accuracy, Tass said today.

Doctors fed it symptoms and the machine came up with a diagnosis, the official Soviet news agency said.

Tass said 1,000 different heart-disease symptoms were fed to the computer. Then symptoms in individual cases were fed in, and a diagnosis came out quickly.

ADAMS COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

MRS. W. RICHARD SCHUBART

Last week this column listed poetry and story books from the American Library Association's compilation of notable children's books of 1964 which are on the shelves of the Adams County Public Library. Here are noted the books of nonfiction on that list:

On science, there are "The Universe of Galileo and Newton" by William Bixby and the editors of "Horizon"; "This Is a Tree" by Ross E. Hutchins; "Lady Bird, Quickly" by Juliet Kepes, on the insect world; "Rain in the Woods and Other Small Matters" by Glen Rounds, observations from the author's own wildlife preserve.

There are two art books, "Famous Artists of the Past" by Alice Elizabeth Chase, and "The Pantheon Story of Art for Young People" by Ariane Ruskin on painting and sculpture from cave man to the present.

Archaeology is represented with "Digs and Diggers" by Leonard Cottrell; "A Book of World Archaeology" describing the methods that began with the 19th century. About people there is Shirley Glubok's book, "The Art of the Eskimo," and "Ishi, Last of His Tribe" by Theodor Kroeber, the true story of a California primitive Indian who wandered into a modern community.

There is a biography of Charlotte Bronte, a fictionalized version called, "Girl With a Pen" by Elizabeth Kyle, a beginner's French book, "La Petite Famille" by Seyles Joslin which is humorous and picturesque, and, for a special taste, "Codes and Ciphers" a study of secret writings through the ages, by John Laffin.

Historical subject matter comes to light in "Pathways to Freedom" by Edwin D. Hoffman, and

5,882 DRIVERS GO TO SCHOOL

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Traffic Safety Bureau reports that 5,882 Pennsylvania motorists facing license suspension have been referred to the state's driver improvement schools so far this year.

This compares with 2,457 referrals for all of 1964, but Harry H. Brainerd, traffic safety commissioner, noted that the program has been expanded somewhat this year.

The program began in late 1963 and at present there are 37 schools across the state, Brainerd reported Wednesday. Upon successful completion of the course, students who qualify receive a certificate.

This factor, along with a driver's past record, may result in the student having his license reinstated or the length of the suspension reduced, Brainerd said.

He added, however, that final decision on the suspension rests with the Traffic Safety Bureau.

GET COLLEGE BIDS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The General State Authority says it received unofficial low bids totaling $157,382 yesterday for expansion of utilities at Shippensburg State College.

Included in the project will be a sanitary drainage system, a pumping station and pipe fitting for a new dormitory building.

In "In Their Own Words: A History of the American Negro," which is a compilation of old writings, diaries and interviews with former slaves, edited by Milton Meltzer.

Even architecture is written up for children in Edwin Hoag's book, "American Houses: Colonial, Classic and Contemporary."

Slaughtering Bill Action In June

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House is expected to take final action early next month on legislation to bring state law in conformity with federal regulations on livestock slaughtering.

The bill was reported to the floor Wednesday by the House Agriculture Committee, basically in the same form as it was introduced.

The only change was in the effective date, putting it off until one year after enactment to give slaughter houses and stockyards time to make the necessary adjustments.

The bill would require that all packers and stockyard operators kill animals in a humane way. Violations would be subject to a $100 fine.

OMAHA (AP)—Brace Davies, 42, farm director of radio station KFAB in Omaha and immediate past president of the National Association of Radio and Television Farm Directors, died Tuesday while undergoing open heart surgery.

BILL CHANGED ON POOL ROOMS

HARRISBURG (AP) — It will be a drastically changed bill when the House votes a second time on the once-beaten proposal to lower the age limit on the youngsters allowed in pool room and billiard parlors.

Rep. John R. Gailey, D-York, hoping to gain more support on the second go-round, amended the bill Wednesday to lower the age from 18 to 16.

An originally proposed, the bill would have opened pool halls to anyone under 18.

That bill was defeated, however, on May 11 by a vote of 116-58. Seeing that the trend was against him, Gailey changed his vote so that he could call the bill for reconsideration. Under parliamentary law, any legislator who votes against a bill can call it up for another vote later.

The measure also would allow pool halls to remain open on Sundays.

There are 135 law schools in the United States.

Go Ahead... Go Cadillac!

Before you buy any car at any price, consider a Cadillac first of all.

New or previously owned, a Cadillac is the one way to be sure your investment will buy the most and last the longest.

Whatever you have budgeted for your next car, your Cadillac dealer has a Cadillac to fit your plans. Naturally, if your choice were unrestricted, you would prefer a new 1965 Cadillac like the Sedan de Ville in front. Next best would be a late-model, previously-owned Cadillac such as the black 1963 Sedan de Ville, above. A well-maintained, one-owner used Cadillac is actually the only real rival of a new Cadillac. Because of the popularity of the 1965 model, your authorized dealer is the one logical place to go for the best selection of fine used Cadillacs.

Economists Expect Money From Tax Cut To Bolster Sales If Business Slumps

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Both psychological and monetary weapons are being readied to ward off any letdown in Americans' confidence that prosperity is here to stay.

Government officials and agencies are now starting a chorus of warnings that people mustn't expect too much. They seek to prevent nervousness if the big upsurge in the early months of this year isn't duplicated in the next few months.

OTHER STIMULANTS

At the same time, new monetary stimulants for the economy are on order for this fall. One is the cut in excise taxes which Congress is pushing through speedily. Another is an increase in Social Security benefits this fall, just ahead of the rise in Social Security taxes Jan. 1.

The new money from the tax cut and the more generous payments to the growing number of retired is counted upon to boost consumer spending.

Government spending is going up, too. Some see more defense outlays in the making. Many of the antipoverty programs are ripe for expansion.

FEDERAL DEBT RISE

Federal debt is due for another rise. It is now $316 billion but the Treasury says it will be $326 billion a year from now. Wall Street regards that as inflationary, however Washington may view it. Stock market observers say prices went up as a result of the Treasury's request that the debt limit be raised.

Business plans for expansion spending are revised upward steadily.

All these should help to insulate public confidence from any shock if there's a downturn this

Four Get Awards By ACA; 1 Refusal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four Republican congressmen from Pennsylvania received distinguished service awards from the Americans for Constitutional Action Tuesday night.

Recipients were Reps. Paul B. Dague, John C. Kunkel, Herman T. Schneebeli and Albert W. Johnson.

Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., declined to accept an award ACA said, because it was his policy not to take awards from any group.

Congressmen from 37 states received the awards.

DEMOCRATS TO GIVE HELM OK IN DEAL BUT SNAG IS SEEN

By JACK LYNCH
Associated Press Writer
HARRISBURG (AP)—Senate Democrats indicate they will confirm Republican W. Stuart Helm as secretary of the commonwealth next week to complete a reported political swap.

Confirmation of Helm was widely expected Tuesday following Republican approval of a newly created $16,500-a-year job with the General State Authority for Robert H. Jones of Scranton, personnel secretary of former Democratic Gov. George M. Leader and David L. Lawrence.

Although the Democrats also won concessions on lesser jobs on the billion dollar borrow and build agency, something went awry in the Senate Democratic caucus.

The wires crossed somewhere was indicated when Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse prematurely issued a statement declaring that Helm's appointment "seems assured." He added that the confirmation might come next week although he said he could not predict the day or the hour.

The 27-member Republican majority in the Senate needs seven Democratic votes on confirmation of appointment to reach the required 34 votes.

BEGINS JUNE 1
Jones will assume his new duties June 1 as assistant to the executive director of the GSA. He has been serving as the $12,075-a-year director of county audits in the Democratic-controlled auditor general's department.

The GSA-Helm byplay sparked an otherwise busy but routine day for both houses which acted on a number of bills and received dozens more from committees.

St. David's has an enrollment of about 300 from nursery through kindergarten and the first eight grades. Girls are accepted only in the nursery school.

The Kennedys are due back in

NEW YORK (AP) — John F. Kennedy Jr., 4, son of the late president, has been attending nursery classes at a private school run by Roman Catholic laymen just off Fifth Avenue, it was disclosed Wednesday.

"He's a great kid and likes school very much," a source at St. David's School said. "Sometime in February, his mother enrolled him in the nursery school for 4-year-olds."

Asked if John-John would continue into kindergarten next year, the source said: "I presume so, unless Mrs. Kennedy changes her mind."

The nursery classes are from 9 a.m. to noon Monday through Friday. There are about 20 other 4-year-olds in John's class, including five or six girls. The class has two teachers.

John has been out of school since May 12, when his mother took him and his sister, Caroline, 7, who is in the second grade at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, to London for the dedication of an acre of Runnymede meadowland in memory of their father.

GOP HARMONY MOVE DERIDED

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — A hands-across-the-Delaware gesture of friendship by Pennsylvania's Republicans to the New Jersey GOP was derided by the Democrats here Wednesday as a "kiss of death."

Robert J. Burkhardt, executive director of the New Jersey State Committee, quoted Pennsylvania Republican Chairman Craig Truax as saying, "It is time the Republican party reached out across the state line and joined hands in a partnership."

Burkhardt remarked, "It is really extraordinary to see a Republican from Pennsylvania offering advice to New Jerseyans, Mr. Truax's boss, Gov. (William W.) Scranton, has, in his brief administration, saddled the people of this state with a two percent rise in the state sales tax."

"I hope that Mr. Truax's offer of the hand of friendship," he continued, "extends to those Pennsylvania state police who have harassed Pennsylvanians who shop in New Jersey to avoid their own state's sales tax."

New Jersey has no sales tax, but the question of its possible imposition is an issue in the state's current gubernatorial campaign.

Insurance investigation—House Democrats called for a legislative investigation of the efficiency and effectiveness of the Republican-administered state insurance department.

Australia has 42 television stations.

Tuesday:

School aid—The Scranton administration sent to the Senate its plan for eliminating the maze of separate subsidies to public schools by substituting one basic formula for most aid programs.

The measure is expected to increase school grants by $47 million the first year of operation.

Culture — The governor also sent to the House his bill for establishment of an 11-member Pennsylvania arts council to foster the arts and culture within the commonwealth.

TWO AMENDMENTS MOVE

Constitutional amendments — Two proposals to amend the state constitution were given final legislative approval by the Senate, clearing the way for the placement on the November election ballot for a decision by the voters.

One would authorize temporary assignment of retired judges to help clear court backlogs. The other would exempt persons earning less than $1,000 a year from paying occupational privilege taxes.

Workmen's compensation — Democrats, stymied by the Republican Senate in efforts to increase the maximum weekly workmen's compensation benefit by $8.50, introduced a similar bill in the Democratic-controlled House.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, wore a floor-length gown of satin trimmed with lace, with a chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with yellow rosebuds.

Miss Stella L. Boose, sister of the bridegroom, the maid of honor, wore a yellow organza street-length gown and carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

Daniel Boose, Gettysburg R. 1, brother of the groom, served as best man. The ushers were Norman C. Bauerline, Codorus, Pa., uncle of the groom, and Andrew J. Bauerline, R. 5.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, the couple will reside at New Oxford R. 2.

Plank—Riebling

Miss Betty Jane Riebling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Riebling, Littlestown R. 2, became the bride of A/3C Paul C. Plank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Plank Jr., R. 3, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Sherrystown. The Rev. C. F. Hildebrand performed the double-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with white mums. Mrs. Jean Whisler was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Alencon lace and taffeta, with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and fitted bodice. The skirt of taffeta with unpressed pleats featured a lace motif down the center of the skirt, trimmed with large bows. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of lace and pearls. She carried a cascade of daisies centered with a corsage of white carnations.

Miss Donna Snyder, 452 S. Washington St., the maid of honor, wore a blue floor-length gown with unpressed pleats. The bodice was of white lace over taffeta. She carried a cascade of pink sweetheart roses and carnations. Miss Norma Erb, R. 3, cousin of the bridegroom, the bridal attendant, wore a light blue short gown similar to that of the maid of honor. She carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses and carnations.

Ronald Plank, brother of the groom, served as best man and the ushers were Roland Riebling, Hanover R. 1, brother of the bride and A/1C William Lutz, 104 Johns Ave.

Following a reception in the church social room for 100 guests the couple left on a wedding trip to Arizona. For traveling the bride chose a beige three-piece suit with green accessories. They will reside at the David Monthan Air Force Base, Luson, Ariz.

The other girls in the classes wore purple bonnets and the boys Amish straw hats.

Archie Moore's Wife Is Keeping Busy As Manager

By ROBERT M. BURNETT
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Ageless Archie Moore's retirement from the ring hasn't brought any noticeable serenity into the life of his wife and No. 1 fan — Mrs. Joan Moore.

She's still his business manager, just as she was when the "Mongoose" was light-heavyweight champion of the world. She also cares for their five children, helps out in community work and carries on an active social schedule.

"All marriages are complicated, but I guess ours is a little more so than most."

MET ON BLIND DATE

"I used to travel a lot with Archie before we had all the children, and I still go with him when important business matters are involved."

"In fact, I've been looking out for Archie's business interests since we were married in 1956."

"I was particularly careful with his fight contracts, and there are quite a few promoters around who wished Archie had never married me," Mrs. Moore said.

She first met Archie on a blind date in New York where she worked as a fashion model. Her sister, Juanita, is married to actor Sidney Poitier.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

Archie's many activities give Mrs. Moore, 33, considerable opportunity to develop her business judgement.

He operated a restaurant in San Diego, has a training camp in the country, ran for City Council and lost, and has appeared in movies and television shows.

"He says he hasn't retired at all, he's just not fighting anymore," Mrs. Moore said. "Right now, he's in Jamaica training boxers for the government. He has about 200 students and hopes to get some professional prospects out of the class."

Quitting the ring was Archie's own idea, she said.

"He loves boxing, and I felt that as long as he was not getting hurt, he should continue in what he liked to do."

"But I was glad when he quit," she added.

Moore, 48, had his light-heavyweight crown lifted in 1963 when he did not defend it. He had won the title in 1952.

Archie wants his sons, Hardy, 4, D'Angelo, 3, and Anthony, 5 months, to become surgeons.

"He feels that if he had had the chance and could have gone to school, he would have been a good surgeon himself," Mrs. Moore said. Their daughters are Rena, 7, and Joan, 6.

RITES FOR NORTON

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Funeral services for Homer Norton, who put Texas A&M into the national football spotlight with great teams in the late 30s and early 40s, will be conducted here Friday.

Under Norton, the Aggies played in the Sugar Bowl in 1940, in the Cotton Bowl in 1941 and 1942, and in the Orange Bowl in 1944. His coaching record at A&M was 82-53-9.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

George Scott, who smashed a two-run homer in the fourth inning, drove home the winning run with a 12th-inning single Wednesday night as Pittsfield defeated Springfield 5-4 in the Class AA Eastern League.

In other games, Ron Locke pitched a four-hitter as the Williamsport Mets defeated the Elmira Pioneers 3-1 to cement their hold on the league lead and Reading defeated York twice 3-2 and 7-6.

Pedro Reinoso got the first two batters out in the top of the 12th at Springfield, but then Owen Johnson doubled and Al Monreuil walked. Scott's single easily scored Johnson and Monreuil was thrown out when he made a wide turn at third.

Fred Wenz was the winner and is now 3-1, while Reinoso absorbed his first loss against two victories.

George Pressley gave up just five hits in Reading's seven-inning, first-game victory at Reading.

In the second game, York was down 7-2 in the final inning before striking five hits and taking advantage of an error and walk to score four runs. The rally was cut short, however, when Doug Gallagher came in and struck out Mike Gardner and got Hank Allen to hit into a forceout.

24,000 Killed In Mishaps, 3 Months

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's death toll from accidents in the first three months this year killed 24,700 persons, an increase of 300—or 1 per cent—over the same period last year, the National Safety Council reported today.

However, because of a population increase, the council said, the death rate from accidents actually dropped from 56.4 to 54.7 per 100,000 persons, a 3 per cent decrease.

FIRST TYPHOON

TOKYO (AP)—The season's first typhoon, Amy, hit southern and central Japan a glancing blow today and left 5 persons dead, 9 missing and 6 injured. After an hour of torrential rain and 75-mile-per-hour winds in the Tokyo region, the storm passed out to sea and left clear skies and sunshine in its wake.

CHAMPS ENTER NAIA TOURNEY

SHIPPENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Danbury State (Conn.) appeared the team to beat today as the NAIA Area 8 playoffs entered the second and final round.

Danbury, undefeated in the double elimination tournament which opened Wednesday, needed one more victory to win a berth in the small college world series next week at Kansas City, Mo.

Bloomsburg State (Pa.) and Glassboro State (N.J.), each with one defeat, were paired against each other in a morning game with the winner scheduled to play Danbury in the afternoon. A Danbury loss would require a third game.

In action Wednesday, West Liberty State (W.Va.) shooting for its second straight national title, fell by the wayside by suffering two defeats. The West Virginians dropped a 7-1 game to Danbury and lost a close 5-4 decision to Slippery Rock (Pa.).

Slippery Rock was eliminated after losing 5-4 to Bloomsburg and 1-0 to Glassboro. In other games, Bloomsburg edged Glassboro 3-2 and lost to Danbury 6-2.

Gettysburg Big Little

The American Legion missed scoring in only the fourth inning as it trounced the Kiwanis Club 14-1 Wednesday evening.

Larry White tossed a one-hitter for the winners, fanning 12 and walking four. He missed a shut-out in the sixth when Dave Bream reached base on an error and Randy Phiel smacked a double, the lone hit off White.

The Kiwanis Club was charged with 10 errors which contributed heavily to the Legion scoring. White and J. Bowers each poled two hits for the Legion.

STADIUM SUIT TO "COOL OFF"

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Judge Joseph E. Gold has called for a 12-day cooling-off period in the Philadelphia Eagles' suit, to restrain the city from proceeding with work on the proposed $25 million stadium.

Gold ordered the Eagles and Mayor James Tate to reconsider their "unfortunate situation," and to re-examine the deadlock between Jerry Wolman, owner of the National Football League team, and the city, over exclusive rights to the proposed stadium.

The judge called for "some alternative solution," and asked that both sides consider "civic responsibility, civic ethics and civic honor."

If Wolman and the city cannot agree by June 9, Gold will begin to take testimony, either on the Eagles' suit or on the city's preliminary objections.

PIRATES TALK ABOUT WINNING WORLD SERIES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates came to town in 10th place in the National League Wednesday night, but their left fielder Willie Stargell is already fretting about next fall's time table—around World Series time.

"If we don't finish No. 1," he said Wednesday night, "we'll finish second. Then we'll go to Japan for the baths."

The Pirates have a tour of Japan scheduled after the season. Stargell, who also predicts he'll hit 30 homers this season, thinks the Pirates should win the series in four games.

PREDICTED PHIL COLLAPSE

"It's going to be kind of tough on us," he said, "playing in the World Series and making a special trip to Japan. I think the best thing would be to beat 'em four games and rest up."

Don't scoff at Stargell's predictions.

The last time Stargell made such a prediction, most people laughed. That was last August when he predicted the Phillies would stage "the greatest collapse in the history of baseball."

The Phillies, then leading by 7 games, acted just like they were waiting for Stargell to tell them what to do. They skidded right out of the lead and wound up in a tie for second.

Stargell, who has marked down in his batting helmet "30 hrs" to remind him of his goal, got his eighth home run Wednesday night. And he slammed a ball to the top of the scoreboard for a triple. "They've got to do something about that scoreboard," he moaned after the game. "I wanted to cry after I hit that ball and had to leg it out."

His homer was one of three struck by the Pirates, who have now won six straight. Others were by Del Crandell and Bill Mazeroski.

Phillies righthander Art Mahaffey absorbed his third straight defeat after having won two. The winner was Tommy Sisk, the third Pirate hurler. He pitched the final three innings.

CARR: In loving memory of our dear son, Gary Carr, who was taken from us three years ago today, May 27, 1962:

Three years have passed, our hearts still sore,
As time flies on, we miss him more.

He was always so patient, loving and kind
What a beautiful memory he has left behind.

No one knows the silent heart of ache,
Only those who have lost can tell Of the grief that is borne in silence.

For one we loved so well,
His smiling face no more we see, His gentle footsteps no more we hear.

His willing hand and face so sweet
In heaven someday we hope to meet.

In the graveyard softly sleeping
Where flowers gently wave
Lies the one we loved so dearly
In the still and silent grave.

We do not know why we must part
For those we love so dear
But God who doeth all things well
Will someday make it clear.

We often sit and think of you
As days go passing by
And wonder why you had to die
Before we could say goodbye.

POLICE RETAKE FUGITIVES ON PHONED TIP

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — An anonymous telephone tip led police to the capture early today of two Pennsylvania prison fugitives accused of kidnapping three men since they made their break Tuesday.

Police said Robert Q. Seidal, 25, of Reading, Pa., and George Hughes, 22, of Hopewell, Pa., were arrested on a darkened second floor hallway.

They were discovered after police received an anonymous report of a holdup in a liquor store on the first floor of the building.

When police arrived, they had found the liquor store closed, but searched the hallway and met Richard Palcak, 21, of Reading, on his way down the staircase.

ABDUCTION VICTIM

Palcak waited until he got outside to tell the officers he had been abducted by two escaped prisoners who were waiting upstairs.

Police said Seidal and Hughes were taken without a struggle. They were held on a fugitive warrant.

Seidal and Hughes bolted from a farm detail Tuesday at the Rockview Penitentiary in Bellefonte, Pa., where they had been serving terms for burglary, according to police.

Later that night, police said, the convicts abducted two Penn State college students, Jeri W. Rinehart, 22, and David P. Jones, 20, both of Pittsburgh.

FORCED DRIVER

The convicts, police were told, forced the students into Rinehart's car, with Jones at the wheel. Pressing knives against the back of the students' necks at times, the convicts made Jones drive a round-about route from Fisherman's Paradise, near the prison, to Reading.

Palcak said he had stopped his car for a red light in Reading about 9:30 p.m. Wednesday night when two men forced their way into his car at knife-point and ordered him to drive to Newark.

Police quoted Palcak as saying the two men planned to stay with Hughes' mother, who lives next door to the building in which they were found. She was not at home when the three men arrived, police said.

Monitor To Chart Space Radiation

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — An Interplanetary Monitoring Platform IMP-3 is scheduled for launching Friday to make scientific space investigations and study radiation hazards along the astronauts' route to the moon.

A Delta rocket is to hurl the payload skyward in a favorable launching period between 6:30 a.m. and 8 a.m. It is to zip into an elliptical orbit ranging out to 130,000 miles.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said IMP-3, like two predecessors, is to measure magnetic fields, cosmic rays and solar winds.

Seven shots are planned in the IMP program. Two of the payloads are to orbit the moon.

TO STUDY BIDS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The General State Authority says unofficial low bids received Wednesday for a new swimming pool wing at Pennsylvania State University exceeded the project allocation.

The bids totaled $2,021,871 as compared with an allocation of $1.7 million. The GSA ordered them held for further study.

The proposed wing is the final unit of a physical education building at the university. It would seat 1,000 for swimming meets and contain instruction and diving facilities.

AGENT SAYS HE URGED BOSSES TO TEST DRUG

CHICAGO (AP)—An inspector for the Food and Drug administration has testified under cross-examination that he recommended to his superiors that Krebiozen be tested under a plan by Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, but he never heard any more about his suggestion.

The inspector, Robert N. Palmer, testified Monday under defense questioning that Dr. Ivy, chief sponsor of Krebiozen, suggested that 200 horses be used to produce a batch of the drug, which would then be split with the FDA for testing.

FIFTH WEEK OF TRIAL

Palmer said he had passed Ivy's suggestion on to his superiors in the FDA and recommended that it be carried out. The witness said he did not know what happened to his recommendation and that he heard nothing further about it.

Palmer testified in the U. S. District Court room of Judge Julius Hoffman as the trial began its fifth week.

Dr. Ivy, 72, director of medical research at Roosevelt University, and four codefendants are charged in a 49-count indictment with mail fraud and conspiracy in the sale and promotion of Krebiozen.

Krebiozen, a white powdery substance its promoters say is derived from the blood plasma of horses, is taken by some cancer patients.

The American Medical Association has termed the substance as worthless in the treatment of cancer and contends it is creative, an innocuous body chemical. The FDA has barred interstate shipment of the substance.

THE LONG WET SUMMER -- Monsoons Come to Viet Nam

By ELTON C. FAY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The monsoon is the Viet Cong's friend.

The summer monsoon has arrived in Viet Nam, to bog down the vehicles and other wheeled equipment of the U.S. ground forces in flooded roads and soggy terrain.

The great rains are good for the guerrilla, who relies on his feet and small boats. The storms help his stealth, provide him additional concealment. He can move about with comparative freedom, but the American, who must use wheeled equipment, is roadbound to the few all-weather highways. The "VC" knows where he can find the American.

The impact of the monsoon is heavier, more, crippling in the flat delta land of the south, a little better in the hills of the north, where the drainage is faster and the soil less like a sponge. Moreover, geography makes a difference. The winter monsoon is the one that hits the north the hardest.

LONG MONSOON

The summer or southwest monsoon season will last through into October.

In the extreme south, the area around Bac Lieu virtually submerges. Three feet of water may cover most of the region, deeper where the lacework of canals threads unseen below the surface of the flood.

At Hue and Da Nang, up in the north, the dry season is coming on. From now to September there will be little rain. Temperatures stay hot, ranging from 90 to 100 degrees.

Thus the problems posed by the monsoon varies with the time of the year and the location.

The American soldier and marine is more skilled in fighting in monsoon weather today than he was four years ago when he began to go out into the field with South Vietnamese troops as an adviser. The U.S. military has had more experience, both in its own monsoon operations and those of the Viet Cong.

GOOD EQUIPMENT

Also, he has more equipment capable of use in inundated regions, including a constantly increasing number of helicopters for flying men and arms almost anywhere, above the flood. But even helicopter airlift faces disadvantages in the monsoon. It may fly men to an area to search out Viet Cong. The soldiers, Vietnamese or American, leap from the helicopter as it hovers a few feet above the water over their heads. The rain and the high humidity are hard on weapons, vehicles and aircraft. The number of aircraft has mounted into the thousands. But hangar space where servicing and repairs can be done during the monsoon rains can handle only a comparatively small number at any one time.

OPERATE IN RAIN

Bombing and rocket - firing aircraft are able to operate with less difficulty in the rainy season. For one thing, they operate out of surfaced airfields built high enough to be above flood waters. Radar and other target - seeking and navigation gear take them to target without the need for eyeball navigation.

When the land disappears under the monsoon flooding, the Viet Cong uses canoe-like boats to make stealthy strikes or get from village to village.

He likes the driving rain of the monsoon. It helps conceal him, blinds and deafens his opponent. The drumming rain deadens sound, helps the VC slip up on his opponent.

Along with other new equipment and techniques proving valuable to U.S. and South Vietnamese soldiers is the plastic mine.

USE SMALL BOAT

It is thoroughly waterproof, can be planted on routes where Viet Cong are expected to wade their way along known routes. On the other hand, the VC, using his small boat, floats safely above the mine, without trig-

COLE PORTER MUSICAL ON NBC IS HIT

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Cole Porter was an elegant man and a sophisticated man, Donald O'Connor recalled, and Cole Porter's elegant sophistication was happily reflected in Tuesday night's colorful, tuneful Telegating it. What creates the Asian monsoons in Viet Nam? During the summer monsoon, now starting in the south, the heat in Central Asia rises, causing humid air to be drawn in from the Indian Ocean. Heavy rains pelt the rice paddy country of the south.

Up to the north, mountain ranges act as barriers. Rain-bearing clouds pile up on the western slopes and spill much of their water on those slopes, while the eastern area remains comparatively dry. The ranges are not continuous, however, and through the passes some storm does flow to flood certain coastal sections.

phone Hour. The biweekly NBC musical program always is in good taste, usually is handsomely produced, but sometimes seems a little stuffy, a bit self-conscious, even dull.

But this last program in the current series was a real swinger, and much of the credit for its spirit must go to the man who wrote so much memorable music and so many witty lyrics.

COUP FOR ABC

The 60 minutes of his songs ran the geographical gamut from "I Love Paris" to "Don't Fence Me In"; the emotional gamut from "Night and Day" to "You're the Tops" and "Be a Clown." A fine cast of soloists included O'Connor, who can do everything from narrations to singing and dancing; Dolores Gray, who handles an Ethel Merman-type song with authority; Nancy Dussault; Jean Fenn, and George London. The latter two from the Metropolitan Opera were great singing popular songs.

ABC has achieved a coup — the television production of a tour of Washington with the First Lady, a special scheduled for fall broadcast.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk will be the guest on NBC's "Meet the Press" on Sunday.

Retailers, Producers Try To Keep Customers Active

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — What people might do is still the big question and the big deterrent in laying out guidelines for orderly economic change and growth.

Congress would like to cut or scuttle excise taxes — some now, some at varying dates in the future.

But what consumers will do while waiting first for Congress to set the terms, and then for the cuts to become effective, is unsettling the planning of retailers and producers alike. All kinds of inducements to keep customers from going on a temporary strike are being tried.

What car buyers will do about keeping the auto makers' long boom going also grows more complicated for the forecasters, in and out of the industry.

SALES STILL HIGH

Some think the big buying spree early this year was due largely to the shortage earlier because of last fall's auto strikes. But that's long past, and today the auto makers are bragging that car sales are setting highs for any May.

Much of the car buying is due to general consumer confidence in a continuing span of good times, and therefore in the ability to meet the monthly payments. Such confidence can change quickly, but there are few signs now of any danger.

Another big uncertainty is what steel consumers — the auto, the construction industry and all the rest — will do about the inventories they were trying to build up earlier this year when there was talk of a possible steel strike May 1.

The strike deadline now is Sept. 1 and a strike looks less likely than it did earlier this year. But steel users aren't markedly cutting back on their orders, the steel mills say, nor asking for shipment delays.

STEEL OUTPUT RECOVERS

Steel output has turned up again after a three-week dip from the record set late in April. Steelmen insist that most of the slowdown in production has been due to repairing facilities rather than any easing in demand. Their shipment schedules are full for many weeks ahead, with only the usual summer lull for plant shutdowns for vacations.

But what will steel users do if a steel labor-management settlement begins to look like a sure thing? Will they hold on to any stocks they've managed to build up? If so, will it be as a hedge against possible price increases? Will their confidence in the sales prospect for their own products keep their orders sizable?

Rumors play a big role in the stock market, sending prices up or down, often without justification. Rumors, or what people think might happen, also can play a big role in the world of retailing and of manufacturing.

DELETE HOUSING

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee carried unanimously a motion Tuesday by Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., to delete from a military construction bill a $3.5 million item for construction of Naval Housing units.

UN-AMERICAN PROBE HITS STORMY TIME

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities moved its hearing on communism in Illinois into its final stage today. Witnesses refused to answer questions and 12 persons were ejected in Wednesday's stormy session.

The committee heard a second witness testify of being a Communist party member while spying for the FBI.

Federal marshals charged the persons ejected from the hearing room with impeding a committee of Congress in exercise of its proper process of investigation. Eight were released on $100 bond and the others were held in jail.

ONE WALKS OUT

One witness Milton Cohen, walked out. A committee member said he will urge the full committee to charge Cohen with contempt.

Cohen was one of six persons named by a witness as being active in the Communist party. Some 60 pickets paraded outside watched by 100 policemen. There were no incidents.

The pickets included three men in military uniforms with arm bands bearing the Nazi swastika. They carried placards reading "Communism is treason" and "God bless HUAC."

"BUNCH OF IGNORANCE" On the witness stand, Lucius Armstrong, 65, a Negro and retired steel mill hand, told the committee that he joined the Communist party in 1931, left in 1934, rejoined it in 1937, left again in 1948, and rejoined in 1953 at the request of the FBI. He told a story similar to one related by Miss Lola Bell Holmes, a Negro, who testified

Blushing Swain Allergic To Kisses

LONDON (AP) — Tim Schofield says he's checked his allergy to kissing with some little blue pills.

"Every time I go on a date I take one and then I'm immune from my troubles for several hours," says Tim, 21.

Every time Tim kissed his girl friend, blonde Billie Tor-doff, 17, he blushed and broke out in a rash.

Schofield consulted a skin specialist. After test, the specialist said the rash was caused by emotional disturbance. He prescribed the blue pills.

Tim didn't say what the pills are, but apparently they're some form of tranquilizer.

FREE ON BAIL

MANHEIM, Pa. (AP) — Phares M. Sweitzer Jr., a 34-year-old striker, was free today in $1,000 bail after he was arrested Tuesday when he lay down on a road and tried to stop a truck leaving the strike-bound Raybestos Manhattan, Inc., plant. He was charged with assault and battery and obstructing an officer. About 1,100 members of the United Textile Workers Union struck the company April 9 for a new labor contract.

A clean art gum eraser is often helpful in removing marks from wallpaper.

Tuesday that she spied for the FBI while a party member. Armstrong and Miss Holmes are from Chicago.

Asked by Alfred Nittle, committee counsel, if the Communist party in the United States reflects Soviet policy, Armstrong said, "It don't reflect anything but a bunch of ignorance."

Armstrong and Miss Holmes testified that Lewis Disken, David Englestein, Cohen, Ben Friedlander, Charles Wilson and Wilberforce Cox Jones had been active in the Communist party. All have been subpoenaed.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

MORE CLEMSON BURIALS

John (4) and Mary (Haines) Clemson were the parents of ten children — eight of whom were listed in the last column. The remaining two — apparently the youngest in the family — were as follows:-

8. Rachel (5) Clemson — married Major . . . Dorsey. Dorsey died "without issue." After her marriage she went to live in that portion of Frederick County as the Lingular District.

10. David (5) Clemson — born 1793 — died 1800.

Note:—Undoubtedly buried in the family graveyard in a grave that is now unmarked. Within this area there are many broken stones — the pieces scattered — one of them could have marked the grave of the little son of the pioneer John (4) Clemson.

Standing on the farm, near Clemsonville, in Frederick County, Maryland, now owned by Edward Hobbs, north of Lingular Church, is a large "L" shaped stone house, built before 1800, by John (4) Clemson, the emigrant from Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. This was the home of the family during the lifetime of the owner. The little burial plot is located in the southeast corner of the farm. On the adjoining farm, which contained some 220 acres, John (4) Clemson built for his son, John (5) Clemson, the "mansion house which was called 'Clemont.'" According to the historian Scharf this house was modeled after Mt. Vernon and was built about 1795. Family tradition contradicts this and states that it was "not erected until later."

At "Clemont" John (5) Clemson and his family lived until about 1860 — the year of the owner's death. At that time John (6) Clemson inherited the property and lived there with his family for many years.

"Clemont."

Returning to the Clemson family graveyard there remains marked graves, not previously mentioned, as follows:-

8. "In memory of — Eleanor Clemson — Died August 1, 1829 — Aged 1 month and — 10 days."

Note:—Stone fallen from its base and broken.

Probably a granddaughter of John (4) and Mary (Haines) Clemson — the daughter of one of their sons — perhaps Mordecai (5) Clemson, who is also interred in the family plot.

9. "In memory of — Ephraim Howard Clemson — Died August 6, 1822 — Aged 1 year, 8 months — and 19 days."

Note:—A grandson of John (4) and Mary (Haines) Clemson — probably the son of Mordecai (5) Clemson and the brother of the Eleanor Clemson mentioned above (Grave No. 8).

10. "In memory of — Mary Clemson — Died February 19, 1835 — Aged 12 years, 4 months — and 19 days."

Note:—Another granddaughter of John (4) and Mary (Haines) Clemson — perhaps another little daughter born to Mordecai (5) Clemson.

11. "In memory of — Octavia Clemson — Born January 6, 1832 — Died February 14, 1832." Note:—Inscribed grave markers were "hard to come by" in the early days — stonecutters being "few and far between." Therefore neither sones or words were wasted. If only the parents' names had been given on the children's markers — the Clemson genealogical tangle would be much easier to straighten. Octavia Clemson was undoubtedly a granddaughter of John (4) and Mary (Haines) Clemson — but to just which branch of the family tree she belongs is not known.

12. "In memory of — Thomas Clemson — Died December 23, 1801 — Aged 6 months and — 13 days."

Note:—Another grandson of John (4) and Mary (Haines) Clemson but to which of their sons he belonged is not known with any degree of certainty.

13. "In memory of — Margaret James — Died April 11, 1810 — Aged 2 years, 3 months — and . . . (?) days."

Note:—This little girl can be definitely placed — Margaret, the daughter of John (4) and Mary (Haines) Clemson, married Major Daniel James "of the Lingular." This was their daughter although just why she was buried here instead of in the James-Kimmel family graveyard is not known. Perhaps the mother wanted the child to be with her people.

It is interesting to note that in the course of time another daughter was born to Daniel and Margaret (Clemson) James. She,

Gloria Rios is on the staff for the sixth annual roundup sponsored by the Woman's League of Gettysburg College and the Cannon-Aders' Square Dance Club. She is a graduate of Massachusetts State College with a degree in education. Calling for two clubs regularly, conducting an annual callers' school and calling at festivals and special dances, Gloria also owns and operates the Woodlands, a private family camp in the Berkshires. She has recorded several singing calls for Top records. One of her most recent was "Devil Woman." The roundup will be held at the SUB on the college campus.

too, was named "Margaret" and some years later this Margaret (6) James became the wife of the pioneer, Henry Poole.

The notes on the Clemson family will be continued in this series next week.

Lie Detectors Fail To Uncover All Lies

WASHINGTON (AP) — An FBI official said Tuesday lie detectors actually don't detect all lies. John P. Mohr, assistant to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, said: "The FBI feels that the polygraph technique is not sufficiently precise to permit absolute judgments of guilt or nonguilt without qualifications."

Mohr told a House subcommittee evaluating the use of polygraphs—lie detectors — that the device "is used as an investigative aid and the results are considered within the context of a complete investigation."

BANKERS HEAR SEN. TOWER

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — U. S. Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., told Pennsylvania bankers Wednesday it was wrong to emphasize control of private capital as a primary means of ending the nation's balance of payments problem.

"One of the real and foremost dangers of our deficit problem is that we just do not have sufficient external resources to presently meet our government commitments and obligations," Sen. Tower said in remarks prepared for the 71st annual convention of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association.

He said the emphasis of control of private capital "is merely a way in which necessary policy decisions can be delayed."

Another speaker, in-coming President John J. Balles of Pittsburgh announced a new campaign by the association "to further mobilize the banking resources of our state in the drive to improve the economic growth record of our great Commonwealth."

Balles, vice president and the chief economist of Pittsburgh's Mellon National Bank and Trust Co., in his acceptance speech, called on the association's members to become lenders of the state's development credit corporations.

OPENS AT EXHIBIT

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Guadalupe Borja de Diaz, wife of the president of Mexico, opened a major exhibition of treasures of Mexican art Tuesday night at the World's Fair.

President Gustavo Diaz Orta, shortly after his election last year, ordered Mexico's display at the fair changed. All industrial exhibits were removed and emphasis was placed on native art.

Johnson Asks Congress To Eliminate Billboards And Junkyards From Highways

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress Wednesday to ban billboards and unsightly junkyards along busy highways. And he sought funds for highway beautification.

In a letter to officials of the Senate and House, Johnson put forth these sweeping and controversial proposals one day after the close of a White House conference on natural beauty.

The most controversial of the presidential recommendations was his plan to control outdoor advertising.

"In general," he told Congress, "such controls would require that no advertising signs be erected in areas within 1,000 feet of the pavement and visible to the passing motorists. Existing signs would have to be removed by July 1, 1970."

CUT HIGHWAY AID

Johnson said that, if Congress agrees, no states could receive federal highway aid after Jan. 1, 1968, unless they control billboards along interstate and primary roads — the most heavily traveled highways. Billboards still would be permitted, however, along routes zoned or used primarily for commercial or industrial purposes.

In proposing controls over junkyards, Johnson said:

"I recommend that, as a condition of receiving federal aid, states must exercise control along the entire interstate and primary systems. No new junkyards could be established within 1,000 feet of the pavement and visible to the motorist. Existing junkyards would have to be effectively screened or removed by July 1, 1970."

CONDEMNATION

The President said some states might lack adequate police powers to control outdoor advertising and junkyards. "Where this is the case," he said, "the federal government would be authorized to pay its share of the cost of purchase or condemnation."

In submitting a package of four bills Johnson was doing just what the 1,000 delegates to the natural beauty conference wanted.

They are:

1. In order to claim federal highway aid for interstate and primary roads — the most heavily traveled highways — states would have to ban billboards within 1,000 feet of these roads, except in areas zoned for commercial and industrial use.
2. All junkyards within sight of interstate and primary roads would either be effectively screened from view or eliminated. If states were forced into condemnation proceedings, the federal government would pay 90 per cent of the cost of condemnation-acquired property along interstate highways and 50 per cent along primary roads.
3. States would be required to spend 3 per cent of federal highway aid under the interstate program on landscaping and beautification projects. Outlays of $120 million a year are involved. In special cases where beautification is considered operating, the secretary of commerce could grant an exception to this requirement.
4. One-third of all federal aid for secondary roads — about $100 million — would be set aside for roadside beautification, recreation areas and scenic roads.

PAY 3 PERCENT

States would be required to spend 3 per cent of federal highway aid under the interstate program on landscaping and beautification projects. Outlays of $120 million a year are involved. In special cases where beautification is considered operating, the secretary of commerce could grant an exception to this requirement.

One-third of all federal aid for secondary roads — about $100 million — would be set aside for roadside beautification, recreation areas and scenic roads.

MENTAL CASES FIND "FAMILY" WITH STUDENTS

By JAMES F. DONOHUE

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — On a quiet street near Harvard is a crowded house called Wellmet. Eight college students live there with eight mental patients.

Some patients, says Dave Kantor, Wellmet Project president, are "the people everybody has given up on."

Wellmet is a place to live for those who have no place else except the wards of mental hospitals. It is meant to be an alternative to endless days of custodial care.

In Wellmet the patient finds a family — his fellow patients and the students who, says Kantor, "bring to the house zest, enthusiasm, flexibility, a set of ideals, of proposals and expectations, a great tolerance for deviation, a consciousness of the human dignity of the patient."

BELIEVE IN CHANGE

"The student," he says, "thinks the world can be changed. Precisely the kind of climate that is best for the chronically sick patient."

From Wellmet, the patients go out to look for jobs and to begin their return to society.

"The idea is to move on," says Dr. Victor Gelineau, Massachusetts director of research in drug addiction and Wellmet vice president and treasurer.

Wellmet Project runs the house with a small board of directors, a psychiatrist and a resident staff of one.

Sponsored by a Harvard student service organization, Wellmet began in 1960. Some 25 patients have lived in the project in the five years. Half have returned to mental institutions.

HALF ADJUST

The others are living "back in the matrix of the community," says Dr. Gelineau.

They are not necessarily fully productive members in the popular sense: most hold jobs such as file clerk, stock boy, aide in a nursing home. Some simply live off pensions.

"We feel," says Dr. Gelineau, "that the community should have more give. That it should be willing to keep people who are not hot-shots at productivity. The whole idea is to have one community, not one community of sick people and another of well people."

The students, five men and three women, attend Harvard and Radcliffe College. They pay $20 a week room and board and take regular turns at house-keeping chores, as do the patients. The patients pay room and board as they are able. A student normally stays one semester at the house.

"Natural Beauty" Party "Rained Out"

WASHINGTON (AP) — After two days of proclaiming the beauties of nature, the 1,000 delegates to the White House conference on natural beauty were ready to celebrate on the South Lawn.

So, it rained.

The gala lawn party, given by President and Mrs. Johnson, was moved indoors.

Presbyterians Rule No Religious Barriers To "Interracial Marriage"

By JOHN F. WHEELER
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Presbyterianism's biggest body, heading toward its first major creedal shift in more than 300 years, has declared there are no religious barriers to interracial marriage.

By overwhelming vote, the 177th General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. adopted resolutions

Tuesday night saying the church finds no scriptural or theological grounds to either condemn or prohibit such unions.

The resolutions also urge the 3½-million-member denomination to work for repeal or nullification of antisegregation laws in 19 states.

MANY "NOS"

A scattering of "nos" came from the voting delegates but was drowned out in applause.

The church's governing body, in the homestretch of week-long sessions, took its first step toward a creedal change by voting to accept and study a proposed new confession of faith, the first such action since 1647.

Approval came after prolonged debate and amid indications the confession may be amended before its scheduled final approval two years from now.

Dr. Edward Dowey Jr., Princeton Theological Seminary church historian and chairman of the committee which spent seven years drafting the new confession, hailed it as "a new direction, a new birth" for the church.

The document, "The Confession of 1967," contains a 4,200-word creed and incorporates seven other historic statements of Christian faith, including the 318-year-old Westminster Confession, into a new summation of beliefs.

BIG IMPACT BY MEDICARE HERE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Arlin M. Adams, state secretary of public welfare, said Tuesday night the proposed medicare bill pending before Congress would have a big impact on Pennsylvania, if enacted.

officials at a special briefing it was impossible to estimate Pennsylvania's share of federal funds under the program.

He added, however, there surely would be over-all increases in aid for the aged, the blind and disabled, and dependent children.

"I don't think any of us have any concept of the tremendous impact this will have on the state," Adams said. "Suffice it to say we are going to have to put more money into some programs." Norman V. Lourie, executive deputy secretary of public welfare, said there is no present concept of the additional funds it may cost the commonwealth under matching features of the proposed legislation.

Adams indicated that Pennsylvania might receive the single largest state share for aid to the aged because 10 percent of its population is over 65, the highest in the nation.
